Program description

The Indiana State Medical Association (ISMA) and Indiana county medical societies are pleased to offer this webinar featuring U.S. Surgeon General Jerome M. Adams, MD, MPH. Dr. Adams will present an overview of social determinants of health and their impact on health outcomes. He will draw on expertise from his medical and public health training to highlight the crucial role collaboration among health care agencies plays in addressing health disparities effectively.

Social Determinants of Health

IMS wraparound session with Brownsyne Tucker Edmonds, MD

Immediately following Dr. Adams' presentation, IMS members will break off to discuss how we can impact disparities and advance social justice in Marion County. Join us and guest speaker Brownsyne Tucker Edmonds, MD, who will lead our discussion. Dr. Tucker is a community advocate, researcher and chair of Indiana ACOG who is widely known for her passion to eliminate health disparities.

This discussion will last until about 1:15 p.m. EST, and the Zoom link and instructions will be sent to you after you register. Don't miss this opportunity to make a difference in Marion County!
